INDEPENDENT LIVING IS COMING TO STEVESTON

Independent Living is ideal for seniors who are healthy and able to care for themselves; want to live independently; desire the security to be found in a seniors-only community; no longer want the hassle of maintaining a house; prefer to live among their peers; can communicate with doctors and caregivers by themselves.

One of the biggest advantages of independent living is that it allows seniors to make new friends and stay social. Social interaction helps keep a senior's mind sharp and active. Just hop on the bus with your friends and head to a play, concert, or event without having to worry about logistics or details. This type of daily interaction is perfect for keeping seniors, happy and enjoying life.

Wow.. how time flies. In August we were a pile of dirt and now at the end of December we can see visible changes to the site. For those living nearby, both the visual and auditory changes are apparent.

STEVESTON MUSEUM

Exciting upgrades have happened at the Steveston Museum, the little museum in the big heart of Steveston. Check out our newly refreshed photo room upstairs or explore our updated exhibits throughout our beautiful 1905 heritage building.

Surrounded by boardwalks reminiscent of Steveston's bustling past, the museum is also famous for its friendly full-service post office.

So what's happening that you can and cannot see? The most visible is that the 157 stall parkade is starting to take shape. So, let's see what all this noise has been about:

- Foundation walls and columns approx. 30% complete
- Underslab rough in for plumbing & electrical started
- Main hydro service conduit installed
- Continuation of raft slab on ground
- Foundation walls and columns (forming, reinforcing steel & concrete placement)
- Start of forming for first 3rd of suspended slab

Our project is being awarded via RFP (Request for Proposal) sent to select proponents. If a contractor wants to be part of the bidding process, contact the Society (via our website) and we will provide the necessary contact information so you can get in on the RFP. It should be noted that all companies bidding for contracts over $700,000 must be bondable.

If you cannot make it out to the site to see first-hand what the changes are, check out <http://steveston284seniorshousing.webs.com/developmentupdates.htm> to see photos of what is happening and click on "join to receive updates" and we will send you information as it becomes available – or be one of the first to get your name on our waiting list.

ANAF Unit # 284, Re-Opens in a Temporary Location

The Army, Navy & Air Force Veterans in Canada are Canada's oldest veterans', ex-service persons' and community service organization with more than 18,000 members throughout Canada. The first unit was formed in 1840 in Montreal and our non-profit organization was incorporated by a special ACT of Canada's Parliament in 1917.

In 1946, thirty Steveston area vets approached the Army, Navy & Air Force Veterans in Canada for a Charter to open their own Veterans club in Steveston. Now here we are in 2010 – 64 years later – going strong and building a new clubhouse. Most Richmond residents and visitors have noticed the landmark ANAF Clubhouse on the corner of No. 1 Road and Chatham Street came tumbling down late last Fall. We then spent some time as the neighbourhood kitty litter pan, and now today the site sits bare with the pre-load removed and ready for the site servicing to begin shortly.

The obvious question is where will all these veterans', ex-service persons' and volunteers meet to continue their community support while the old site is under construction? If you stand on the site of the old clubhouse and look 'over yonder' you will spot the Coast Capital Credit Union. The second floor above the Credit Union is the temporary home for all the ANAF members to come together and continue their community support through various fundraisers, including their Thursday night free BINGO, their Friday and Saturday Meat Draws and the standby favorite – the LA Sunday Fundraiser.

The pool tables are set-up and the kitchen is open each day for lunch, so stop up have a bite to eat and watch out the window as things start to take shape kitty-corner to the temp location.

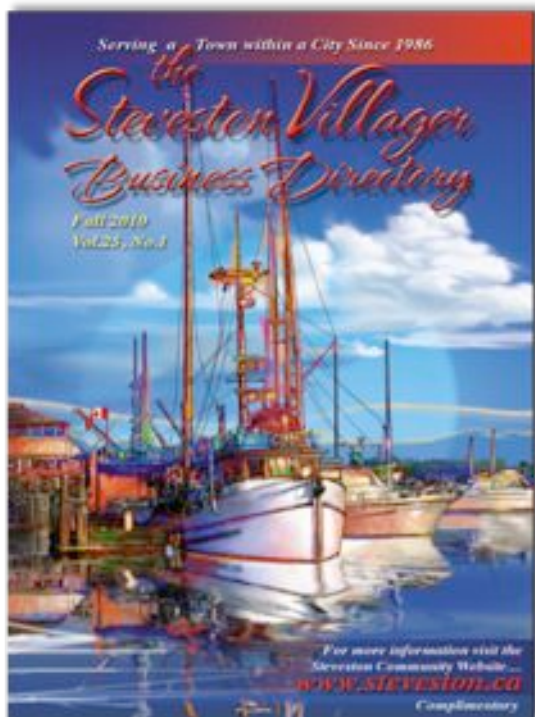

If you have any questions about the hours or services, you can check out the ANAF website at <http://www.anaf284.bravehost.com/>

When the new ANAF clubhouse rises from the ground, it will bring with it, the Maple Residences, a 144 unit Seniors' Independent Living facility. Information about the Maple Residences can be found on their website: <http://steveston284seniorshousing.webs.com/>

The Oprah Winfrey Network and a Vancouver production company are looking for people from one Canadian town to be in a new TV series! We will be giving members of one community the opportunity of a lifetime to get out of debt, save money and live better lives.

This new TV series currently in development will give one select community access to top financial experts. Experts will help people reach their financial goals and launch a national movement! With household debt at record highs, people across the country feel the never-ending cycle of working too much without ever getting ahead. We want to help people of one community realize their lifelong dreams.

We're wondering if Steveston is the adventurous and spirited community for this new show. We'd love to hear from people who want to earn and save more money, or get out of debt like so many hardworking Canadians across the country. Tell us what you'd do if suddenly you had more time and resources to truly live the life you've always wanted! Email: research@forcefour.com

beWILDered ABOUT AFRICA?

Widely travelled and born in South Africa, Christine Boecker, C.T.C. (Certified Travel Counselor) of TravelBoecker takes pride in the fact that she herself has experienced the tours she promotes. Having lived in Europe and settled in Steveston 7 years ago, Boecker has over 30 years travel experience exploring much of the African Continent, Europe, Asia, the Americas and sailing on an icebreaker through the Arctic Sea. ("What a trip that was!")

"My goal is to provide you with an extraordinary travel experience from start to finish - every time!" she says.

Boecker recently took her own 10-year-old daughter on a camping safari to one of the last unspoiled African wildlife paradises – the stunningly scenic Okavango Swamps in Botswana. She recalls the trip:

"Ronald, our guide, awaited us in an open safari vehicle and soon we spotted our first elephants – a family with a baby, feeding at the side of the road... At sunset, we arrived at the camp – tired and exhilarated. Our cook, Richard served a delicious, healthy meal. Soon afterwards, we retired to our canvas accommodation with comfy mattresses on stretch beds, covered with crisp sheets and warm duvets. We even had an en-suite washroom complete with a flush toilet and bucket shower attached to the back of our tent.

"Early in the morning, we were off on another game drive. The grass shimmered with dew and the air was crisp and fresh. Not far from our camp, we came across more elephants, many bird species, including fish eagle and saddle-billed stork, and then we spotted a group of seven cheetahs. What a thrill to watch these graceful animals interact with each other.

"Later we enjoyed a 'mokoro' ride – a dug-out canoe which glides silently through the maze of waterways that make up the 'Okavango swamps.' And then our patience was rewarded with a sighting of three lionesses lounging by the side of the road. We watched them for a long time – just mesmerized by these powerful cats.

"I am unabashedly smitten with the beauty of the scenery and wildlife of the Okavango Delta. Its reputation as 'the best safari experience' is well-deserved. So if Africa is on your bucket list for a getaway, and you want to get away from it all to one of the world's largely untouched wildlife havens, this is the place to go."
